ANSWERING JEHOVAH'S WITNESSES

And Jesus increased in wisdom and stature, and in favour with God and man (Luke 2:52).

Has a Jehovah's Witness (JW) ever questioned you about the deity of Christ and then asked you to explain it to him? If he did, you know he was setting a trap that works in his favor most of the time. Well, often, our answer might be something like this: The deity of Christ means that Jesus is coequal and coeternal with the Father and the Spirit. Then the JW's reply would be, "Is Jesus all-knowing like Jehovah his Father?"

A Bible-believing Christian would most likely answer, "Yes." Then with a smile and look of satisfaction on his face, the JW ask you to read this verse in Mark 13:32, But of that day and that hour [of the second coming of Christ] knoweth no man, no, not the angels which are in heaven, neither the Son, but the Father. At this point, the JW thinks he has proven that Jesus is not divine because He's not all-knowing.

When the Son of God became the Son of man, He emptied Himself (made Himself of no reputation) of all His divine glory and was always dependent upon His Father. Philippians 2:6-7, Who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God: 7 But made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men.

Although Jesus existed in the form of God, He also took the form of a servant. As a servant, the Father revealed to Jesus His will, wisdom, and knowledge.

Jesus knew that after His resurrection, His divine glory would be restored: John 17:5, And now, O Father, glorify thou me with thine own self with the glory which I had with thee before the world was [all of His divine attributes]. In Revelation 1:7-8, Jesus is the One coming and is called the Almighty: Behold, he [Jesus] cometh with clouds; and every eye shall see him, and they also which pierced him: and all kindreds of the earth shall wail because of him. Even so, Amen. 8 I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord, which is, and which was, and which is to come, the Almighty.

The context of all Scripture places Jesus as the Creator of all things (John 1:3), the Great I AM (Exod 3:14; John 8:58), and the Almighty (Rev 1:7-8).

May we be ready always to give an answer to every person that asketh about Jesus.

WHAT'S HAPPENING ON THE FIELD

BWCE THIRTY YEARS

Psa. 115:1, Not unto us [Baptist World Cult Evangelism], O LORD, not unto us, but unto thy name give glory, for thy mercy, and for thy truth's sake.

This verse has been the goal of BWCE since it began in 1991. It was and always will be for Thy truth's sake was my promise to the Lord. If truth matters more than anything else, truth will be found no matter who looks for it. The devil was angry because God created Adam in His image and likeness and gave him dominion over the earth (made him king of the planet). The devil felt worthy of such great power and position. So, this was his plan: A lie is as good as the truth if you can get someone to believe it. You know the rest of the story. Eve said, "The serpent beguiled me, and I did eat." Satan was the first of God's creation to sin, not man.

Lies are powerful. The lies that the serpent told Eve gave her a new sense of power. It is the feeling of power to control others. Jim Jones led the 900 members of his People's Temple to commit mass suicide.

Lies about God and His Word are the source of false doctrine. I have spent 30 years of prayer and study learning how Joseph Smith, Charles Russell, and Ellen White empowered others with their lies.

Cult leaders are not the only people experiencing the power of controlling masses of people with lies. Let's take a look.

FOLLOWING THE CULTS

Charles Russell led his followers to believe that Jesus was God's first created being. He was a god and not the Eternal Son of God.

Walter Martin, who wrote The Kingdom of the Cults, said that Jesus was not the eternal Son of God before His incarnation (p. 102 subtitle, The Eternal Word). John MacArthur agreed with this false teaching in the book he wrote on Hebrews.

In the late 1920s, Seventh-day Adventists leaders saw the risk of losing their church. Their two main doctrines, the investigative judgment, and 2300 years were only supported by the exact wording of the KJV. Instead of admitting these teachings were false, they asked their college professor to write a text that would compel their followers to read only the KJV.

In 1930, Benjamin G. Wilkinson published Our Authorized Bible Vindicated to keep followers from leaving their movement.

In 1955, Jasper James Ray wrote God Wrote Only One Bible. In 1970 David Otis Fuller wrote, Which Bible. These Baptist pastors plagiarized Wilkinson's text and brought the philosophy of the cults into the Baptist movement. What philosophy? A lie is as good as the truth if you can get someone to believe it. Peter Ruckman and Jack Hyles became the main leaders to bring the KJV Only plot to its peak in the 1980s and 1990s. Before this period of deception, Baptist leaders were KJV First. Does truth still matter the most?

"PUTTER'S PEN"

Psa127:3 Lo, children are an heritage of the LORD: and the fruit of the womb is his reward. 4 As arrows are in the hand of a mighty man; so are children of the youth. 5 Happy is the man that hath his quiver full of them.

Children are a heritage of the LORD! They are His reward (the fruit of the womb), and happy is the man that has a full quiver of children! The Lord sure has blessed us over the years with a full quiver of rewarded fruit, but like my Mamma always said, "There is always room for more!" During our years of "parenthood," our quiver held six. As the years passed, our "quiver" started filling up once again, as one by one, our kids moved over as they added 14 more to our family quiver! (Grandchildren are grand!) However, there is always room for more. Before we knew it, two great-grandchildren were added to our family quiver (oh, how grand and great they are!).

But there is always room for more. So, move over, once again, Angie, Rachel, Sarah, Mary Beth, David, Jessica, Carolyn, Davy, Gunnar, Colt, Harleigh, Brooke, Kinzie, Drew, Zane, Bella, Matthew, Scarlett, Aiden, Owen, Ella, Henry. . . room is needed for another one! Our third great grandbaby will arrive in May! Congratulations to Harleigh and Aaron on their first little arrow in our quiver. We are so excited! But there is still room for more! Until next time . . . Jehovah-jireh, "Putter"

Certificate of Ordination

We, the undersigned, hereby certify that upon the recommendation and request of the Tabernacle Baptist Church at 3931 White Horse Road which had full and sufficient opportunity for judging his gifts, and after satisfactory examination by us in regard to his Christian experience, call to the ministry, and views of Bible doctrine,

David N. Weeks

was solemnly and publicly set apart and ordained to the work of

THE GOSPEL MINISTRY

by authority and order of the Tabernacle Baptist Church

November 1, 2021

My ordination was held on March 21, 1984, in the chapel at Tabernacle Baptist Church in Greenville, SC. The chapel was filled with people, There were four men on either side of me. They were either staff members at Tabernacle or Tabernacle Bible College students like me. When I was asked, "What is your belief about Scripture and the King James Version?" I answered, "I believe in the plenary, verbal, Divine inspiration and inerrancy of Scripture, consisting only of the 39 Old Testament and 27 New Testament books, in the original languages, and that the King James Version is First because I believe it is the closest to the original autographs." We were also questioned about the other nine basic doctrines, and when the ordination committee reconvened, we were ordained.

Dr. Harold Sightler gave us a final word of warning by saying, "If any of us were to change our position on any of the doctrines that we attested to, we were instructed to return our ordination certificate to Tabernacle Baptist Church." And everyone said, "Amen"!

As you can see, I still have my ordination certificate because the truth doesn't change. Ten years later, people who hold to this doctrine of Scripture as stated above were considered unworthy of support by those who yielded to the pressures of the King James Only advocates.

Correction for the Surgery Date
Dave & Putter Weeks

Dear Church Family,

Thank you so much for being such an encouragement to us these many years. Nothing is more comforting in life than saying, “For me to live is Christ and to die is gain.” That makes everyday something special and every tomorrow more special with the expectation of seeing our Lord. Those who walk with Him know the joy of His presence and the comfort of His Spirit.

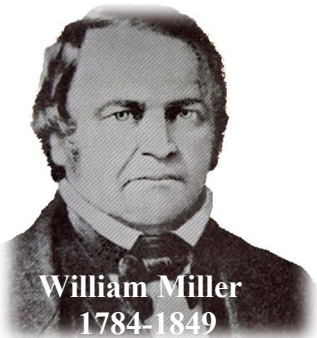

This prayer letter is the first of three in the Adventist Series. I earnestly pray that the Lord will use each of them to help us always seek the good and shun the evil. Working in cult evangelism for 30 years has taught me a lot about people. Jesus taught us that some people love darkness more than light. Those are the people who follow the cults. Part three of Adventism will bring this clearly into the light.

After being diagnosed with prostate cancer in June, the operating rooms were booked until the end of September. The date for my surgery is September 28th. They will determine if the cancer has spread to other organs during that surgery. Whatever the outcome, I know the Lord is in control. What more would anyone need than your prayers and the Lord’s loving-kindness? It’s a wonderful life when you know the Lord above, and He saved you by His love, so the song goes, and I agree.

Love and prayers,

Dave & Putter Weeks

P.S. Concerning the surgery, Putter will keep you posted on Facebook, and the 4x6 SDA card is attached.

ADVENTISM (1 of 3) FROM 1831-1844

But of that day and that hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels which are in heaven, neither the Son (Mark 13:32).

The history of Adventism began with William Miller. He grew up in New England during the frontier days. His dad served in the Revolutionary War, and his uncle and grandfather were Baptist preachers.

William followed his father's sense of patriotism but felt no connection to God. After serving in the War of 1812, William had a different view of God's presence. He saw many examples of things only God's Divine Hand could have done. That changed his attitude. After the war, he began looking for answers.

In 1815 Miller started attending a revival service. He knew he needed a Savior, but did He really exist? His emotions were high, and he ran to the Scriptures. The Holy Spirit opened his eyes, William knew God's Word was true, and he received Christ as Savior.

Before Miller's conversion, he was a Deist. Now, as a highly self-educated believer in God's Word and academically robust, his goal was to harmonize alleged Bible contradictions, or he would return to Deism. When one gets this far in studying the life of William Miller, there is a peace about his conversion to Christ and his earnestness to serve the Lord. Yet, like many great men who start well, not all of them finish well, and so it was with William Miller the Adventist. His downfall is described in the first three underlined words in the above verse: knoweth no man. William Miller spent the rest of his life trying to do something that Jesus said no man could do. What was that? It was to predict the second coming or advent of Christ, first on October 22, 1843, and then again in 1844. The failed prophecies became known as The Great Disappointment to nearly a million people who followed Miller.

At that point, Miller recanted, admitted his failures, and sought forgiveness, but he found no comfort with his remorse. A small group of admirers surrounded their leader, and they started the Adventist Church that continued preaching the advent of Christ was soon. Yet, some others had a different vision. Although the date setting was over for Miller, it was only the beginning of three groups that would follow Miller's way of making people believe whatever the leaders wanted the Bible to say. Without the rules to guard the authority of Scripture, anything goes!

TALKING TO AN SDA

Keep a copy of the attached 4x6 card in your pocket. Ask three questions: Are you an honest person? Is the Bible your absolute authority for faith and life? Will a truth in God's Word ever contradict itself? Then ask him to read Romans 10:4 (in your or his smart phone Bible app). When he is finished, make this statement: If you only believed this one verse, you could never be an SDA.

Follow up by giving him/her the 4x6 card and continue to the verses in Gal 3:23-25.

NOT SAVED BY KEEPING THE LAW

Rom 10:4 For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth. Why is Christ the end of all the law? Christ has replaced the law by being the controlling factor in the lives of all who have received Him by faith.

Gal 3:23-25 But before faith came, we were kept under the law, shut up unto the faith which should afterwards be revealed. 24 Wherefore, the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith. 25 But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster.

Rom 4:3-6 For what saith the scripture? Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness. 4 Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt. 5 But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness. 6 Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works ...

GREATEST COMMANDMENT

Mt 22:36 Master, which is the great commandment in the law (THERE IS ONLY ONE LAW)? Jesus said unto him, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. 38 This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.

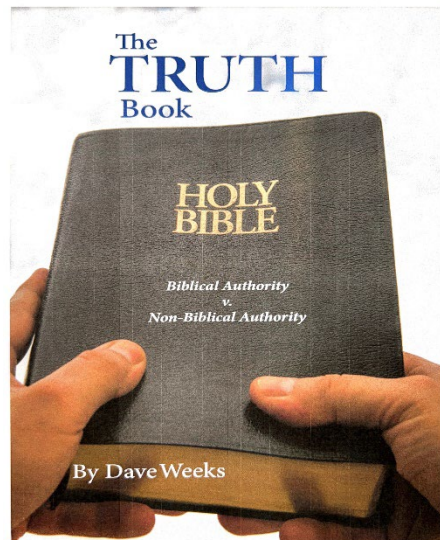

What does "all the law" mean? It means all that God had given: it means the 10 Commandments and all the rest. BIBLE SALVATION IS BY GRACE THROUGH FAITH IN THE FINISHED WORK OF JESUS

IS YOUR FAITH REALLY IN THE BIBLE?

People who follow latter-day prophets are led to think that their faith comes from believing the Bible. Seventh-Day Adventists (SDA), Mormons, Jehovah's Witnesses, and Muslims are all told the same story by their leaders. If what they are told were true, then the truths given in the verses on the front page would have the same meaning to all of them. The truth is that none of them believe what these verses are really saying. Why? Because the Bible is not their authority, but rather the teachings of their "divine leaders" are. What SDA leaders teach about salvation comes from Hiram Edson's 1844 vision which resulted in their doctrine of Investigative Judgment. If you were to read Joseph Bates 48-page tract written in 1846 on the Sabbath, you would have in essence what is being taught by SDA leaders today. You must first believe that these men or women have "divine authority"; next, you must believe that what they have written (the extra-biblical revelations) has come from God. Since the Bible indicates that God's Word has been completed and that only false prophets and teachers would come as angels of light to give "new truth," that should be enough warning for a prudent person to understand.

Matt 7:15 Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves. See also: 2 Cor 11:13-15 & Jude 3.

THE TRUTH BOOK

I am looking forward with great joy to beginning my next writing assignment. From the first time a Bible was in my hands; I only wanted to know the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth. That has been my passion for over 50 years. The front and back cover is finished. The rest will come from the Lord as He guides me from beginning to end. What a joy that will be! Knowing how to recognize the truth comes from the Holy Spirit, and how to rightly divide the word of truth comes from learning the rules that protect the authority of Scripture. The rules can then test all interpretations to determine if they are true or false, right or wrong. Health Update: My prostate removal is on 9/28/22. Thank you for your prayers. Putter will update you on Facebook.

"PUTTER'S PEN"

The same came therefore to Philip, which was of Bethsaida of Galilee, and desired him, saying, Sir, we would see Jesus (John 12:21).

When you don't know what to say, just brag on Jesus! What good advice this is, especially today as I sit to write this month's "Putter's Pen." Nothing much has changed in our lives since our last letter, so I will follow this advice and brag on Jesus, from Genesis to Revelations! I trust you will be praising our Lord and Savior by the time you get to the end. Hallelujah, what a Savior He is!

2022-11fb Email Intro for September 2022 Prayer Letter
Dave & Putter Weeks

Hello Church Family,

Knowing you are a child of God and having the privilege to serve Him in times like these is what makes my days filled with adventure and blessings. I have given Him a new name. I call Him The God Of My Everything: He is my Father, Savior, and Comforter. He is everything to me and becomes more amazing each day I live.

The days are passing by quicker than ever before. Life, to me, is a continuous series of new beginnings. Some have a way of repeating themselves, like the diaper stage, but the one that is coming soon is the one that thrills me the most. You know what that one is, right? Yes!! It is seeing my Savior face to face.

November 1st marks the fifth-week postop for my robotic prostatectomy and the second week of my physical therapy. It also marks my 77th year on this planet, my 49th year as a child of the King of Kings, and on November 20th, Putter and I will have been married for 56 years. Thank you, LORD! And thank y'all for being with Putter and me many of those years.

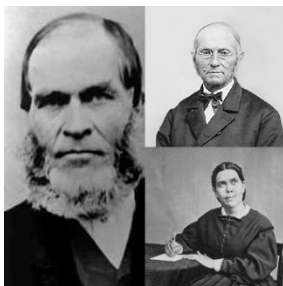

Since the surgery, there have been some stressful challenges. Some Microsoft updates corrupted the system files on my PC, and it would not turn on. Our jwinfo.net website was hacked again, and it was a game changer this time. It's good to know what to do in times like this, right? Well, when the LORD gave me the blessing of writing The Salvation Book, He also gave me Genesis 18:14. Are you familiar with that verse? If you are, then you know why the LORD is the God of your everything. It is not a secret, but just in case your processor runs slow at times like mine, here's the text in Genesis 18:14 where the LORD asked Abraham this question: Is anything too hard for the LORD? The answer is no!! This is why He's the God of my everything and both of the problems He resolved for me by providing the people who could help me solve them. Praise the LORD! As the song goes, this is what makes being a child of God a wonderful, wonderful life.

If I can change my breathing habits, it will enable me to do the kegel muscle exercises that will help me to regain continence and bladder control. My Urologist will see me again in January to evaluate my progress, and I will give you an update in my January prayer letter, LORD willing.

Thanks for your sweet words of well-wishing, cards, and continuous prayers. May Thanksgiving be a time for families to praise the LORD and make much of His goodness and grace.

Love and prayers,

Dave & Putter

SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTIST (2 of 3) FROM 1844-1900's

And the serpent said unto the woman, Ye shall not surely die: (Genesis 3:4).

From Adventism to Seventh-day Adventism is part 2 of this 3-part series. The Great Day of Disappointment, October 22, 1844, ends with no rapture, and William Miller is now considered a false prophet. The next day Hiram Edson's "cornfield vision" will begin a new chapter in the history of Miller Advent followers that will classify them as a cult.

One man in Miller's circle of followers believed he had power from God to heal the sick and that his preaching resulted in many people believing in Jesus. So, on the day after, October 23, 1844, while walking through a cornfield to avoid the searing shouts of mocking neighbors, Hiram Edson's confidence is restored in the October 22, 1844 prophecy. His cornfield vision told him that the date was correct, the judgment was right, but the place was wrong. Instead of cleansing on earth (the earthly temple), it took place in heaven. This vision "insight" developed into the Investigative Judgment doctrine and the 2300 days (years to SDA people). The judgment began in the heavenly sanctuary when Jesus went from the outer court into the Holy of Holies and began His judgment there instead of coming to judge the earth. And then the serpent said, "Amen!"

Just like Genesis 3:4, a lie is as good as the truth if you can get someone to believe it. The power of a lie can change the world, but never for good, only for evil.

Joseph Bates is the second man in the photo on the right. In 1846 he wrote a 48-page tract that represents why Adventists became Seventh-day Adventists (SDA). Bates led them to believe the lie that only the 10 Commandments were God's laws and that all the rest were the commandments of Moses. This started their Sabbath worship.

Ellen G. White was 17 when Miller's prophecy failed. She outlived Edson and Bates and became the SDA movement's prophetess leader. She was proven to be a plagiarist in many areas of her writing. The White LIE was written by an ex-SDA, Walter T. Rea.

In her early writings, she wrote that Jesus was Michael the Archangel, a created being.

Charles Taze Russell was an SDA for ten years before the founding of the Watchtower movement in 1879. Russell taught his followers many SDA doctrines, including that Jesus was Michael the Archangel before His physical birth in Bethlehem. White died in 1915 at 87, but her lies continued.

WHAT'S HAPPENING ON THE FIELD

GOD-SENT MOMENTS

There are many God-sent moments that we all will never forget. One that made a lasting impact occurred while sitting at Dunkin Donuts. It was the spring of 1978, about 8 AM. I had just left work at Caterpillar Tractor and was waiting for my dentist appointment. Directly across from me was a group of seniors discussing their latest fun weekend motorhome camping adventure. In almost every conversation, they took God's name in vain. It made me angry, so I took my coffee and sat in my car. Once realizing what I just did, I began to weep and asked the Lord to forgive me for being a coward. I desired to return, retake my seat, and wait for the right time to speak. The same thing happened again, and when there was a moment of silence from them, I said, "Parden me, folks, I couldn't help hearing you talk about your weekend. It sounded exciting, but I became very uneasy as you spoke." They said, "What was troubling you?" My reply was, "Frequently, as you were talking, you were taking my Father's Name in vain." They offered their apologies for offending me, but I made it clear that they should be more concerned about offending God than me, for taking His name in vain is one of His 10 Commandments, and breaking it makes you as guilty each time as if you had murdered ten people and told God that you were sorry. That brought them to silence!

LORD, I BELIEVE YOU!

After that, when I heard people take the Lord's name in vain, they received a card with my prayer for their souls.

The card you see here is the third major revision. The game-changer was the verse in Galatians 3:24.

That's when the Lord showed me His plan of salvation. It was His law that He intended to be used to guide and convict sinners of their lost condition and their need to change their thoughts about sin. If there is no regret of sin, there will be no change in one's inner self. The desire to follow Christ and obey His Word is the natural result of a new birth and the indwelling presence of the Holy Spirit.

As a sower of God's Word, I desire to give this card to every person who will take it. The card is seldom refused. You can tell at once the power it has to make people think. To reach deep into their souls. It has a kind of John the Baptist effect when he said, O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come? People have cried out to me by saying, "I've been wanting to know how to have peace with God and just didn't know what to do." I will print cards like this with your contact info. Contact me! 😊

Today, If You Had To Make A Choice, What Would It Be

LIFE OR DEATH?

Heaven Hell

For the wages of sin is Death; but the gift of God is Eternal Life

Eternity is a long time to be in the wrong place!

If you will believe God's Word, turn from your Sin, and trust Jesus Christ alone as your Savior, you can be delivered from God's impending judgment.

Take The Goodness Test?
Based On The 10 Commandments, How Good Are You?

- | | |
|--------------------------------|------------------------------|
| 1. No other gods before Me! | 6. Don't murder: the unborn! |
| 2. Make no images of Me! | 7. Don't commit adultery! |
| 3. Don't take My name in vain! | 8. Don't steal! |
| 4. Keep the LORD'S Day! | 9. Don't lie! |
| 5. Honor your parents! | 10. Don't covet! |

The law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ ... (Gal 3:24).

If you lie, you're a liar! If you steal, you're a thief! If you lust, you're an adulterer or a fornicator. If you take God's name in vain, you're a blasphemer.

There are a lot of good people in this world, but no one is sinless!

"PUTTER'S PEN"

I will praise the name of God with a song and will magnify him with thanksgiving (Ps 69:30).

Thank you all for your prayers concerning Dave's cancer surgery. He came through it great, and the doctor assured us the cancer had not spread. He is recovering well and will need a few weeks of muscle therapy for his bladder, but he is pretty much back to normal; praise the Lord!

This verse in Ps 69 became a reality for me these last few months. A few years ago, I heard a song for the first time. After hearing it, the lyrics stuck in my head. Whenever something unpleasant came my way, this song always went through my mind during the situation, especially the chorus: "I've been through enough to know that He is enough."

Two lines of the song describe my feelings during this cancer journey: "I've seen Him work before, and I know what God can do. He's come through too many times, putting my mind, at ease, for good."

When Dave was diagnosed with cancer, was I worried? As a wife, YES; as a child of God, NO, for I have been through enough to know He is enough! Folks, Heb. 13:8 is still in the Book! Hallelujah, what a Savior!

Until Next Time. . . Jehovah-jireh, "Putter"

2023-1 Email Intro for January 2023 Prayer Letter
Dave & Putter Weeks

Happy New Year, Church Family,

It is a joy to begin this new year with the assurance of the Lord's blessing and knowing His will for the days ahead. I am now three months postop from the prostatectomy. Physical therapy helps with the strengthening of the kegel muscles that control continence. Typically the healing process may take a year to complete. Patience and consistency with the breathing therapy I've been taught is the key to good bladder control. Breathing correctly makes a difference with each movement and step I take. Thank You, Lord, for each victory so far.

This prayer letter is the last of the three-part series on Adventism. It may be shocking to some of you, so I would like to review the series and provide additional comments to help people recognize the difference between biblical and non-biblical authority.

Biblical authority is protected by rules used in the Berean Principle, which compares Scripture with Scripture. As you read through the gospels, you will learn to recognize how Jesus corrected the religious establishment of His day. If something was being taught that was non-biblical, it conflicted with the context or harmony rules in other portions of Scripture. This is also how manuscripts are evaluated and accepted or rejected.

I use this example with Jehovah's Witnesses and the Watchtower's rendering of John 1:1; there, they have "a god" instead of God for the Word. I ask, "How could anyone know that a god is incorrect?" They usually reply, "How?" Then I ask them to read Genesis 1:1, In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth. Then I say that if "a god" were correct in the New World's Translation of John 1:1, it would have to say "a god" in Genesis 1:1. That's usually a game changer for a JW. The harmony and context rules are a significant part of what God has given to guard the authority of Scripture, not advanced or extra-biblical revelations from Joseph Smith and Hiram Edson, the progressive inspiration of Bibles created by the cults, or the KJV Bible translation. Jesus called the non-biblical teaching of the Jewish establishment the doctrines of the Pharisees and Sadducees, in other words, the teachings of men.

My goals for this year are to keep sowing, growing, writing, and serving you and my Lord. Our books are available to you by request. I hope to be road ready by March and able to revisit churches that would like us to come. The Psalmist asks this question: If the foundations be destroyed, what can the righteous do (Psa. 11:3)? My answer to that question is to rebuild them with the truths already in our textbooks that many of you and I were taught in the 1980s during Bible college. May these Words of the Psalmist be the desire of each of our hearts: I have chosen the way of truth: thy judgments have I laid before me (Psa. 119:30).

Love and prayers,

BAPTIST FOLLOW SDA PLOT (3 of 3) FROM 1955-2000's

Confidence in an unfaithful man in time of trouble is like a broken tooth, and a foot out of joint (Prov 25:19).

On October 23, 1844, the SDA church began with Hiram Edson's "visionary doctrine" of Investigative Judgment. During the late 1920s, SDA leaders feared losing their denomination because of newer translations of the Bible. This fear is what prompted them to create the SDA Plot. The person they chose for this plan was Benjamin G. Wilkinson. Remember that the SDA church was built with a lie, and lies were as good as the truth if they could get someone to believe them. Professor Wilkinson was an SDA missionary, educator, "theologian," and Dean of the Adventist College in Takoma Park, MD. He was tasked with poisoning the translation waters to convince SDA members to read only the King James Bible (KJV). This was the beginning of the King James Only (KJO) or King James Bible (KJB) Movement.

Wilkinson's Our Authorized Bible Vindicated was first published outside the USA in 1930. The poisoned waters plot was not a permanent fix to the security of the SDA's Investigative Judgment doctrine. In 1994 the KJV was unofficially replaced by SDA's Clear Word Bible. It is permitted to be printed internally by SDA printing facilities, but the KJO talk was gone. Their lie was as good as the truth until another lie replaced it.

Three Baptist Leaders plagiarized Wilkinson's work. Their writings or publications did not expose Wilkinson as a questionable scholar or cult leader like Jim Jones.

The 1611 King James Only leaders plagiarized Wilkinson's message with a similar plan to establish the Authorized King James Version as a God-inspired translation. King James Only meant no translation before or after, inspired by God and perfect. The people promoting this false doctrine were called Ruckmanites. The truth is that there is no inerrant, inspired translation of the Bible that is equal to the original autographs. Before 1985, the wording in doctrinal statements was: "Inspired only in the original autographs of the New and Old Testaments." God inspired the original writers, and their texts were inerrant. Honest translators evaluated manuscripts and accepted them solely based on their own merits: the more comparisons, the less chance of errors. Today there is less than one-tenth of one percent difference in the majority of texts, and those differences would not change any doctrine.

The King James Version is first in the lives of many believers because it has nurtured our souls. To say that any Bible is inerrant and inspired would relieve us of the responsibility of verifying the work of the translators.

Names of significant leaders who used the SDA plot for self-serving and dishonest reasons: Jasper James Ray wrote: God Wrote Only One Bible in 1955. David Otis Fuller wrote: Which Bible, 1970. As mentioned above, Peter Ruckman based his "1611 Kings James Only Movement" on his three predecessors' concepts.

Jack Hyles used the KJO Plot to divert attention from charges of teaching false doctrine and immorality. In 1985, Hyles held the Sword Conference at Bob Jones University with his own plot in mind. He endorsed the main points of Ruckmanism and proclaimed that if anyone did not agree with his position (progressive inspiration) on the King James Only Bible, they would be considered heretics.

The Doctrine of Bibliology: "The claim of inspiration, of course, applies to the original writings only and not copies, translations, or quotations." Lewis Sperry Chafer, Major Bible Themes (Revised Edition), by John F. Walvoord (1974, Grand Rapids, Zondervan), p.18. If you changed your doctrinal statement to agree with Hyles, repent and do right!

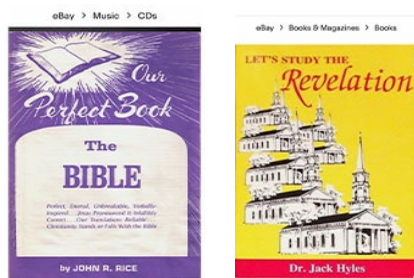

Dr. Sightler taught me (1982) in his classroom the same thing from the textbook he used with verses quoted from the American Standard Version (1901). The Inspiration & Authority of Scripture, Rene Pache. Consequences of believing a lie are all yours.

WHAT'S HAPPENING ON THE FIELD

HONESTY & INTEGRITY

John R. Rice, the founder of The Sword of the Lord, wrote a booklet that turned into a book in 1958. I'm using this as a reference point before the King James Only supporters corrupted the Sword. I'll be quoting from his booklet, Our Perfect Book The Bible. I got a used copy of it on eBay. I also have a copy of Hyles' book where he repeatedly corrected the KJV. I'm building a case to support the front page and the heading above.

Here is a quote from p. 28 of Rice's book: "Of course, when we speak of verbal inspiration of the Bible we mean the original manuscripts as men wrote nearly all the OT in Hebrew, and the NT in Greek." Then further down the page, he said, "But in any standard and reliable Translation there will be not a particle of difference in doctrine, and only a slight difference in actual wording." He recommends the American Standard Version (1901), which was the text in Dr. Sighter's class. In the following years, John R. Rice and the Sword of the Lord led the IFB movement to more significant numbers, dangerous attitudes, declining morality, and doctrinal changes, which said believing is repentance, a simple, easy plan leading to the wide gate and hell.

KJV AMP PARALLEL BIBLE

What significant improvements did 1901 (American Standard Version) make that influenced John R. Rice and many others to use in comparison to the KJV? The improved accuracy in these two verses is one example of why it impacted its readers.

Rom 8:16 AKJV The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God.

Rom 8:16 1901 The Spirit Himself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God.

The Personhood of each member of the Godhead would never be referred to as it. It is a reference to a thing, not a person. Amen!!

For any translation to be perfect, it must be without error, right?

Matt 23:24 AKJV Ye blind guides, which strain at a gnat, and swallow a camel.

Matt 23:24 1901 Ye blind guides, that strain out the gnat, and swallow a camel!

There is no perfect translation, and there are no exceptions. Honest corrections that make any copy of God's Word more accurate are what manuscript evidence is all about, and it glorifies God.

The KJV was my first Bible, and it will remain first as long as I live. With that said, the AMP 2015, in parallel with it, give me a greater blessing because the language is 21st-century English. When you read the AMP parallel, you can tell in a second if there is any change in meaning or doctrine. To me, the KJV AMP Parallel Bible is a God-sent answer to my prayers.

If anyone were to ask me if I have the "perfect" Bible, I would gladly say, "I do now." 😊

Thank you for helping to make our ministry possible. Love & prayers!

"PUTTER'S PEN"

I will praise the name of God with a song and magnify him with thanksgiving (Ps 69:30).

Thank you all for your prayers concerning Dave's cancer surgery. He came through it great, and the doctor assured us cancer had not spread. He is recovering well and will need a few weeks of muscle therapy for his bladder, but he is pretty much back to normal; praise the Lord!

This verse in Ps 69 became a reality for me these last few months. A few years ago, I heard a song with lyrics stuck in my head. Whenever something unpleasant came my way, this song always went through my mind during the situation, especially the chorus: "I've been through enough to know that He is enough."

Two lines of the song describe my feelings during this cancer journey: "I've seen Him work before, and I know what God can do. He's come through too many times, putting my mind, at ease, for good."

When Dave was diagnosed with cancer, was I worried? As a wife, YES; as a child of God, NO, for I have been through enough to know He is enough! Folks, Heb. 13:8 is still in the Book! Hallelujah, what a Savior!

Until Next Time. . . Jehovah-Jireh,
"Putter"

2023-9 Email Intro for September 2023 Prayer Letter
By Dave Weeks

Dear Church Family,

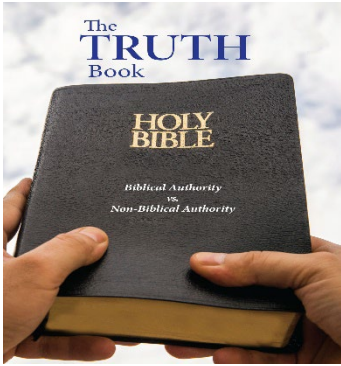

Putter and I thank each of you for your faithfulness, prayers, and support. Great news: A JW hotline caller was saved. It is essential to protect the confidentiality of anyone leaving a cult. I can share some details here because this intro will not be posted on our website. His name is Art. He is single and 27 years old. He works with his uncle, a master plumber who is a JW. After attending the Jehovah's Witness Kingdom Hall for a while, he began to see that Watchtower literature was the basis for their teachings. This began his search for the truth. He called our hotline so many times that he had most of the dialog memorized. I have been mentoring him since the middle of August and teaching him how to know the difference between biblical authority and the teachings of men. Josh has befriended him as well, and he has a tremendous passion for the Word. Joshua Ellison will have a bit more to say on the back page of our prayer letter. The hotline number is 770-932-3806. Call it, please. The Lord has been so good to us through our recent transitions, causing some things to fall and rise again. In the past two years, we have faced some significant challenges. Regarding our physical conditions, Putter has lost focus in one eye because of Macular Degeneration, and I have lost a vital internal organ due to cancer. Still, I feel better now than I have in years. As we both get closer home, the joy of His presence brightens each day and makes life a precious thing.

Changing our mission boards in March was like changing our mission fields from church planting in Austria to cult evangelism in 1993—we lost 40% of our support, but we didn't lose the Lord's blessings for following His will for our lives and ministries. Putter's ministry to ladies gives her joy every day as she types her daily comments from "Putters Pen" for ladies on Facebook. She is always on call to our large family circle daily.

As for me, I am preparing to create a course on cult evangelism to be used at Trinity Baptist Seminary (TBS) at the Frontier Baptist Missions' home office this fall. It will consist of 12 fifty-minute sessions that I will teach there in October or November, Lord willing. I also enjoy mentoring Josh and seeing him, with the Lord's help, grow into becoming a cult evangelist and the next director of Baptist World Cult Evangelism. Josh will have to learn Spanish, and his connection to a mission board reaching Hispanics will give him greater opportunities that were not possible in the past. He will oversee the translation of BWCE publications for Spanish-speaking people. Because my last PSA numbers tripled in the July blood test, indicating that the cancer was active again, I was scheduled for 39 radiation treatments. They started Aug 2nd and continue through Sept 26th, five days a week for eight weeks. My Radiologist is a brother in Christ and feels confident that the treatments should eliminate any further spreading of cancer that started in the prostate.

These things will remain my ministry focus as the Lord continues my days—I want to walk with Him and be conscious of His presence in all that I do as I sow the Seed, maintain my present daily ministries to people who contact me for help with the cults, keeping our three websites current with updates and deal with security issues, preparing the PowerPoint Presentation and a written lesson by lesson handout at TBS, writing The Truth Book: Biblical Authority vs. Nonbiblical Authority, and of course praying for all of you—our great joy.

Love and prayers,
Dave & Putter Weeks

THE KJV AN INERRANT DIVINELY PRESERVED BIBLE

Buy the truth, and sell it not; also wisdom, and instruction, and understanding (Prov 23:23).

For over 30 years, we have worked with Mormons, Jehovah's Witnesses, Seventh-day Adventists, and Muslims who have been told they have the only translation of God's Word that is inspired, inerrant, and divinely preserved. Following the SDA Plot showed how their corrupting influence affected others. The likeness in the above examples is that the leaders became the authority rather than the Bible itself.

The idea of an exclusive translation of the Bible is a product of the cults. They used this notion to separate and control their followers. For everyone, there is a price to pay for believing and teaching a lie to others.

Jesus was hated and despised because He brought back to Judaism an example of biblical authority by showing His disciples the difference between the teachings of men and the teachings of God's Word rightly divided.

The view of inspired translations is not something new.

It started with the Septuagint around B.C. 150 when the O.T. was translated into Greek. Also, it may have been the very thing that motivated Erasmus to begin his translation, the TR (Textus Receptus), for the same thing had been said about the Latin translation. And then there were those after Erasmus who said the same thing about the TR. Now, when you move the accomplishment of two men forward to our generation, it makes the lives of Erasmus and William Tyndale much more divinely significant. In what ways? That is a good question. Both men were passionate about truth and willing to give their lives to keep it. God gifted them with skills that ranked them two of the Renaissance's most outstanding writers, scholars, and theologians: the result, our English Bible.

Erasmus studied those called church fathers extensively and saw how some of their infamous writing influenced others. He wanted confirmation from copies of the original Greek manuscripts that would reflect the original autographs of the New Testament. He may have started with only two copies, but after comparing six different texts, he made five revisions before finishing the last version. Erasmus began what is known today as The Science of Textual Reconstruction. From the time of Erasmus until now, many other translators have followed his example. The difference is that Erasmus only had a few different copies to compare with others to eliminate the variants.

In each generation from then until now, the Lord has given more manuscript copies to compare to reconstruct the original autographs. This is divine preservation, according to Jesus. What do you mean by that? Jesus taught the disciples that His Word would not pass away: manuscript copies make this possible.

Matt 24:35 Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away [It will ever be there].

Joh 10:35 If He called them gods [men], unto whom the word of God came, and the scripture cannot be broken. Copies were there. We just had to find them.

Variants in the KJV like 2 Chron 9:25, 4000 stalls, vs.

1 Kings 4:26, 40,000 stalls, and 2 Kings 8:26, Ahaziah at 22 yrs. reigns vs. 42 in 2 Chron 22:2. Scribal mistakes like this are rare and do not affect the great doctrines of the Bible. What they do affect is the claim that there are perfect translations without error.

The Lord has provided and continues to provide manuscript evidence of divinely preserved copies that enable translators to continue improving the accuracy of our Bible. He said His Word would never pass away.

Yes, like Erasmus, and now, like scores of others, we need to believe that manuscript copies are what God has preserved to reproduce the originals. And that faith should bind us together as one with all those who love the Lord enough to believe and obey His Word.

So, to summarize, although I and many others like me who are not King James Only (Ruckmanites), we do believe we hold in our hands a Bible that is divinely preserved and inerrant because it accurately conveys all the essential truths of the original text necessary for faith, life, and doctrine for the Scriptures cannot be broken. Thank You, Lord, for keeping Your Word!

WHAT'S HAPPENING ON THE FIELD

DAVE ON BAPTISM

Campbellism (CMB) is a cult started by Alexander Campbell in the mid-1800s. He was part of the Restoration Movement, including Mormons, The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints (LDS), Seventh-day Adventists (SDA), and Jehovah's Witnesses (JWs). He was a former Presbyterian and is noted for his teachings about baptism. It teaches that water baptism is essential for salvation. This false doctrine is called Baptism for Salvation or Baptismal Regeneration. The churches that followed Campbell in the early days were called Disciples of Christ or the Churches of Christ. Now, they shy away from any of their names, connecting them to the past. They may use just the name of a city and then the word church.

There are four baptisms mentioned in Scripture. Only one is essential for salvation; it is in Mark 16:16, which is the baptism of the Spirit. The context of this verse says nothing about water. Water is John's baptism for repentance. Jesus' baptisms are Spirit, fire—judgment, and suffering: Mark 10:38 But Jesus said unto them, Ye know not what ye ask: can ye drink of the cup that I drink of? and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with [suffering]? Matt 3:11, I indeed baptize you with water unto repentance: but he that cometh after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not worthy to bear: he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost, and with fire [judgment]. 1 Cor 12:13, For by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, whether we be Jews or Gentiles, whether we be bond or free; and have been all made to drink into one Spirit.

JOSHUA ON UPDATES

Praise be to God; a JW hotline caller was saved in August. I have contacted him on three separate occasions and am greatly encouraged by hearing his testimony from his own lips. It comes as no surprise to us that the enemy is not pleased that the truth, John 8:31-32, has set another free from his lies and the chains of the flesh that so easily beset us. So, I urge you to join me in prayer for this young man. Just by hearing his testimony and hearing a little about the desire God has put in his heart to see the eyes of those around him opened to the truth, I am that much more rejuvenated to the high calling of preaching, teaching, and sharing the truth with all the lost but, even more, so those deceived by cults. It is a tremendous blessing that I get to have a small part in edifying and discipling this young man. Please keep all of us serving with the ministry of BWCE in your prayers as we follow the leading of the Lord and allow Him to work in us to do His good will. Also, remember to pray for the endeavors of Trinity Baptist Seminary. Another semester is just kicking off. It is so important that Pastors, church leaders, and young men and women have a place with resources to help them grow in their knowledge and working practice of the scriptures. I am excited about the course, Bro. Dave will be teaching and continuing my training. This past month marks my first year of Bible Theology training; I am taking one of the four courses entirely in Spanish to help my progression. Of course, all of this is in hopes of growing and readying myself for the work of the Ministry.

“PUTTER’S PEN”

Isa 64:6 But we are all as an unclean thing, and all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags; and we all do fade as a leaf; and our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away.

In today's Putter's Pen, I would like to give my testimony; I hope it will be a blessing to you.

Growing up, I was a “good kid,” “good teenager,” and then a “good wife.” I was not an “ex” anything or “recovering” from any vice; however, I was still a sinful person. One Sunday in Dec. 1975, our Pastor preached on Isa 64:6; during his sermon, the Lord said to me, “That's you, Putter! ALL of your goodness is as filthy rags!” My worst “filthy rag of righteousness” was pride; over the years, I became “proud” of being Miss Goody Two-Shoes!” but Isa 64:6 knocked me off my self-righteous platform and into the open arms of a loving Savior, no longer clothed in filthy rags, but clothed in His righteousness, for the blood of Jesus washed me clean, and the journey keeps getting sweeter.

For years, I would hear how the Lord saved people from horrific lifestyles, and I would shy away from telling my testimony because there was nothing in my past that had that “wow” effect; then I found the verse that really “wowed” me: Lu 19:10 “For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost.” I was the “that” which was lost whom Jesus came seeking, and praise the Lord, He not only found me, but I found Him. Hallelujah, what a Savior! Until next time, Jehovah-jireh, “Putter”

SPIRIT ITSELF AND THE BEREAN PRINCIPLE

By Dave Weeks July 27, 2023

Itself occurs 48 times in the Bible. Except for two verses, it always refers to a thing rather than a person. If there is a grammatical rule that makes itself possible to be used for the Holy Spirit, then the code of ethics regarding a person would deem it inappropriate, and it does. Why? The Spirit is a Person, not a thing. The Holy Spirit in Romans 8:16, 26 (KJV) should be Spirit or Spirit Himself because referring to a Person of the Godhead as it would be disrespectful.

Further evidence can be found in the first English translation of the New Testament from the Textus Receptus (TR) by William Tyndale in 1525 AD. He is called the Father of the English Bible. His translation was the primary text used by Coverdale, Matthews, Great, Geneva, Bishops, and King James Bible. Nearly 90 % of the New Testament and 66% of the Old Testament are from the pen of William Tyndale. They copied his text because it was a God-given work of genius.

Desiderius Erasmus and William Tyndale are ranked two of the most outstanding scholars and theologians of the Renaissance. They were free-spirited men with unparalleled God-given skills, and their spirits were yielded to the Lord, and they feared neither popes nor kings.

Erasmus wrote a book, De Copia, that Oxford University used as a textbook. It's been said that there would be no William Shakespeare without that book. Tyndale earned his Doctorate at Oxford University, and during his studies, he learned and mastered seven foreign languages. As a student at Oxford, Tyndale, by studying De Copia, learned the art of articulating the English language to the point where it was no longer considered a primitive language unworthy of use for Scripture. One example was to take a sentence like this: Your visit has given me great joy. It would have to be written no less than 150 ways until it was polished to brilliance. It was primarily William Tyndale's skills that made the King James Bible the greatest piece of English literature ever written.

Eze 4:14 Then said I, Ah Lord GOD! behold, my soul hath not been polluted: for from my youth up even till now have I not eaten of that which dieth of itself, or is torn in pieces; neither came there abominable flesh into my mouth.

Eze 17:14 That the kingdom might be base, that it might not lift itself up, but that by keeping of his covenant it might stand. {but...: Heb. to keep his covenant, to stand to it}

Eze 29:15 It shall be the basest of the kingdoms; neither shall it exalt itself any more above the nations: for I will diminish them, that they shall no more rule over the nations.

Eze 44:31 The priests shall not eat of any thing that is dead of itself, or torn, whether it be fowl or beast.

Da 7:5 And behold another beast, a second, like to a bear, and it raised up itself on one side, and it had three ribs in the mouth of it between the teeth of it: and they said thus unto it, Arise, devour much flesh. {it raised...: or, it raised up one dominion}

Mt 6:34 Take therefore no thought for the morrow: for the morrow shall take thought for the things of itself. Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof.

Mt 12:25 And Jesus knew their thoughts, and said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and every city or house divided against itself shall not stand:

Mr 3:24 And if a kingdom be divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand.

Mr 3:25 And if a house be divided against itself, that house cannot stand.

Lu 11:17 But he, knowing their thoughts, said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and a house divided against a house falleth.

Joh 15:4 Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine; no more can ye, except ye abide in me.

Joh 20:7 And the napkin, that was about his head, not lying with the linen clothes, but wrapped together in a place by itself.

Joh 21:25 And there are also many other things which Jesus did, the which, if they should be written every one, I suppose that even the world itself could not contain the books that should be written. Amen.

Ro 8:16 The Spirit ~~itself~~ beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God:

Ro 8:21 Because the creature itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God.

Ro 8:26 Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities: for we know not what we should pray for as we ought: but the Spirit ~~itself~~ maketh intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered.

Ro 14:14 I know, and am persuaded by the Lord Jesus, that there is nothing unclean of itself: but to him that esteemeth any thing to be unclean, to him it is unclean. {unclean: Gr. common} 1Co 11:14 Doth not even nature itself teach you, that, if a man have long hair, it is a shame unto him?

1Co 13:4 Charity suffereth long, and is kind; charity envieth not; charity vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up, {vaunteth...: or, is not rash}

1Co 13:5 Doth [charity] not behave itself unseemly, seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil;

2Co 10:5 Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ; {imaginations: or, reasonings}

Eph 4:16 From whom the whole body fitly joined together and compacted by that which every joint supplieth, according to the effectual working in the measure of every part, maketh increase of the body unto the edifying of itself in love.

Heb 9:24 For Christ is not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of the true; but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us:

Jas 2:17 Even so faith, if it hath not works, is dead, being alone. {alone: Gr. by itself }

3Jo 1:12 Demetrius hath good report of all men, and of the truth itself: yea, and we also bear record; and ye know that our record is true.
